

ACADEMIC PRIORITIZATION OVERVIEW
INSTITUTION: University of Montana-Missoula and Missoula College

Current State of Prioritization Process	Issues to Resolve	Next Steps	Lessons Learned
List one: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> In progress. The review period is concluding and initial prioritization of programs is beginning. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ensuring that the programmatic data are accurate Completing the prioritization process in a timely manner, while also ensuring the quality of the review There were a few programs that did not submit reports, and we will review these based on available data 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Academic Program and Administrative Services Prioritization (APASP) Taskforce is conducting an initial prioritization of academic programs. Deans will respond to the initial prioritization recommendations. The APASP Task Force will consider Dean responses when they formulate their recommendations to the President and Cabinet. Authors will have the opportunity to respond as well. Their responses will go directly to the President and Cabinet. APASP implementation plans (due in January) will be developed for each recommendation. The timeline for the APASP process is available on our website. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strong engagement from students, staff, faculty, and administrators has enhanced the process Conducting a pilot process for program review/ scoring is beneficial. Training for report authors provides greater consistency and better quality reports. Training for additional reviewers is important to ensure inter-reviewer reliability. Electronic scoring software facilitates workflow for the numerous steps in the prioritization process. Transparency to the campus is enhanced through regular email communications and website updates. Evaluation of programs requires a balance of qualitative reports and quantitative metrics.

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES PRIORITIZATION OVERVIEW

INSTITUTION: University of Montana-Missoula and Missoula College

Current State of Prioritization Process	Issues to Resolve	Next Steps	Lessons Learned
List one: In progress. The review period is concluding and initial prioritization of services is beginning.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fewer data are gathered for administrative services than for academic programs, so there is less information to analyze • Similar to the Academic Programs, there were a few services that did not submit reports • Completing the prioritization process in a timely manner, while also ensuring the quality of the review 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The APASP Taskforce is categorizing administrative services and providing recommendations to the Cabinet • Sector heads will respond to the initial prioritization recommendations. • The APASP Task Force will consider sector head responses when they formulate their recommendations to the President and Cabinet. • Authors will have the opportunity to respond as well. Their responses will go directly to the President and Cabinet. • APASP implementation plans (due in January) will be developed for each recommendation. • The timeline for the APASP process is available on our website. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong engagement from students, staff, faculty, and administrators has enhanced the process • Conducting a pilot process for program review/ scoring is beneficial. • Training for report authors provides greater consistency and better quality reports. • Training for additional reviewers is important to ensure inter-reviewer reliability. • Electronic scoring software facilitates workflow for the numerous steps in the prioritization process. • Transparency to the campus is enhanced through regular email communications and website updates. • Evaluation of services requires a balance of qualitative reports and quantitative metrics.