Welcome Comments:

- Clayton T. Christian, Commissioner of Higher Education
- Superintendent Denise Juneau

Why CTE Works for Montana:

- John E. Cech, Deputy Commissioner & Perkins State Director
- Steve York, Assistant Superintendent of OPI

6:00 – 6:15 What is the State Career & Technical Education (CTE)? T.J. Eyer, Division Administrator, CTE Division, OPI

6:15 – 6:30 Montana’s Vision for CTE, Big Sky Pathways, & The Board’s Role Kali Wicks, Big Sky Pathways Manager & Perkins Specialist, OCHE

6:30 – 7:00 Break into Groups of 8

Task: As a group, answer the following three questions centered around the Three As of a Triple A Board: Ambassador, Advocate, and/or Asker:

1. How can this Advisory Board be an Ambassador for CTE and Big Sky Pathways in Montana? For example, how can members cultivate additional interest in supporting our programs and/or help to steward relationships?
2. How can this Advisory Board be an Advocate for CTE and Big Sky Pathways in Montana?
3. How can this Advisory Board be an Asker for CTE and Big Sky Pathways in Montana?

A Perkins/Big Sky Pathways team member will facilitate table conversations. We will need a volunteer to serve as the scribe and a non BSP team member to volunteer to report out three thoughts from each question.
