*Note: Montana's Community Colleges are encouraged to offer the MTNG Tuition Waiver; however, students must inquire at the college directly to verify waiver availability.

QUALIFICATIONS:

A student who is a member of the MT National Guard is eligible for a tuition waiver, provided the student:

- Is a bona fide member of the MT National Guard at the start of each semester for which the student is enrolled;
- Is certified as a MT National Guard member in good standing who has completed Initial Entry Training;
- Does not hold a baccalaureate degree or higher;
- Maintains reasonable academic progress in accordance with the campus's Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy used in administering federal financial aid; and
- Has an outstanding tuition balance after applying all other sources of aid (see award calculation example below).

MT National Guard members who do not meet the residency requirements provided in BOR Policy 940.1 but do meet the criteria listed above, are eligible for in-state tuition status for purposes of applying the tuition waiver under this policy.

AWARD GUIDELINES:

The MT National Guard Tuition Waiver is a last dollar award and is calculated based on the in-state tuition rate. ALL federal, state and private grants and/or scholarships sent to the campus on behalf of the student, must be deducted from tuition before the waiver can be applied. Waivers will only be applied if there is an outstanding tuition balance after all other sources of aid have been applied (see example below). GI Bill benefits are not included in the tuition waiver award calculation.

For questions regarding how this benefit will be calculated for your specific circumstances, please visit the Financial Aid Office or Veterans Services Office at the campus you plan to attend.
