

February 2019

A new grant allows UM to expand neuroscience education across multiple colleges.

UM President Seth Bodnar was sworn into the Montana National Guard.

A University program helps high school students with disabilities consider college.

Students create an outdoor gear museum exhibit at Fort Missoula.

A popular website features UM professor's work on corporate mergers.

The new UM Food Pantry celebrates its grand opening Feb. 12.

UM School of Journalism students recently produced the latest edition of "Business: Made in Montana." a television program featuring businesses based in the Big Sky State.

The University Center will host its second Black Solidarity Summit in February.

UM faculty member Bill Borrie was named a Fellow by The Academy of Leisure Sciences.

Renowned public figure Winona LaDuke to speak at UM in February.

"Backroads of Montana" MontanaPBS series wins national award.

The UM "Odyssey of the Stars" event to honor YouTube star and museum science communicator Emily Graslie.

UM Dining was recognized for supporting higher animal welfare standards.

A management information system student group at UM earns international recognition.

The University's Wilderness Institute names a new director.

UM's popular Foresters' Ball features 'Saw Bands and Wild Lands.'

UM researchers discover jungle ants emit as much greenhouse gas as wastewater treatment tanks.

UM spring enrollment stabilizes with increased persistence rate.

The U.S. Department of Education reduced the UM Clery Fine.

The presence of asbestos prompts UM to close McGill Hall.