MONTANA GEAR UP

10 Unexpected Items for Your Dorm Room

DISINFECTANT WIPES

It will be important to keep your dorm's surfaces clean and disinfected. Bacteria and germs can build up and wipes are a must-have if you live in a dorm or with roommates.

SLIPPERS/SLIDES

Having a pair of flip-flops/slippers/slides/Crocs you can use to take showers is a must. Trust us. These will be helpful and comfortable.

HANDHELD VACUUM

Your room will get dirty. That's a fact. The question is how to help keep it clean. A handheld vacuum is easy to store and an important tool to have your first year of college.

LAUNDRY BAG/BACKPACK

Laundry, laundry, laundry... It sneaks up on you and you'll need a way to carry that mass of clothes to the washing machines. Some laundry hampers can double as bags for your clothes.

STAIN REMOVER PEN

You're out having dinner with your friends and then it happens—a piece of pepperoni lands on your new shirt. Fortunately, a stain remover pen can save the day...and your shirt.

RAIN JACKET/UMBRELLA

Wherever you go to college, it will probably rain. Even a brief shower can make your walk to class wet and unpleasant. Be prepared with a rain jacket or umbrella in your bag.

COUNTERTOP WATER FILTER

A countertop water filter consists of a pitcher connected to a removable and replaceable carbon water filtration system. Now you can enjoy fresh, filtered water in your own dorm room.

WATER BOTTLE

Hydration is vital for a successful and healthy college experience. Having a water bottle handy helps keep your hydration levels at peak levels. Go ahead, keep filling up that water bottle and show off your school spirit!

POWER STRIP/EXTENSION CORD

It's your first day in your new dorm room and you notice there's only one electrical outlet. Solve this problem by packing a power strip and extension cord. You will need to plug in your electronics and mini-fridge.

DAMAGE FREE WALL HOOKS

Most colleges will not allow you to nail or put other holes in your dorm walls. Damage-free hooks provide a non-invasive method to hang pictures, posters, or other wall decorations.
